PROGRAM SYNOPSIS

The Community Assistance, Recovery and Empowerment (CARE) Court in Sacramento County is a collaborative civil court program operated by Sacramento Behavioral Health Services in partnership with the Superior Court. The program provides a pathway to community-based behavioral health care, housing, and supportive services for adults living with schizophrenia spectrum disorder or bipolar disorder with psychotic features who are at risk of repeated hospitalization, homelessness, incarceration, or LPS conservatorship.

SMHC ROLE OVERVIEW

The SMHC in CARE Court performs field-based assessments to determine program eligibility and helps develop treatment and support plans for individuals with schizophrenia spectrum or other psychotic disorders. The role includes light case management during the investigation phase and ongoing involvement throughout the client's participation. CARE Court is a civil process aimed at preventing criminalization and institutionalization by connecting individuals to voluntary, community-based care before more restrictive interventions become necessary.
