5:30 pm Welcome

- A quorum is established and the meeting is convened by Sydney Spitzer, Program Coordinator at PRO Youth and families.

5:35 pm Members Discuss Objectives and Goals

- Members discussed some of their objectives and goals for the board.
- Trayzell White stated that once the officers know how to do the administrative duties, then the members can focus on communicating as a united team.
- Savanna Karmue stated that the board is still new and learning. The board should set some long-term goals and overarching values.
- Madison Nguyen stated that the adult allies to the board could advise them. She sees some objectives as focusing on school initiatives and starting earlier with younger students on prevention and coping strategies.

5:41 pm Approval of Minutes and Agenda

- Members approved the meeting minutes for the date of 1/7/2022.
- Members approved the agenda for the current meeting.

5:45 pm Discussion of SCOE's Initiatives and Priority Areas

- Savanna stated that early civic learning and the amplification of youth voice leads to the other two initiatives happening.
- Trayzell stated that his focus is on the initiative for the mental health career pipeline.
- 5:49 pm Members discussed the impact of COVID-19 on schooling. The difficulty faced by youth when they have differing beliefs from their parents/caregivers. The importance of using an equity lens to identify vulnerable groups. SCOE's goals are intersecting and affect and influence each other.

- 5:57 pm Members discussed some considerations for SCOE as it designs new initiatives for the new Student Mental Health and Wellness Plan.
